

FARMHOUSE ON BOONE

ABOUT THE BLOG

My name is Lisa and I am the writer, photographer and videographer behind the blog, Farmhouse on Boone. My purpose is to share my love for creativity, inspire others and document my family's simple farmhouse lifestyle.

I write two posts per week, focusing on whole food, natural living and a handmade home.

My readers follow along for sewing tutorials, DIY projects, design inspiration, whole food recipes, natural remedies and our simple life here on Boone Street
